Capability Statement

SERVICE-DISABLED VETERAN-OWNED SMALL BUSINESS

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Dot One Media is a veteran-owned, faith-driven media production studio based in Wasilla, Alaska. We deliver full-service video, photography, documentary, and strategic editorial media for government, non-profit, and commercial clients. Owner-operated and process-driven, we are built to serve Alaska's underserved, veteran, and Native communities, and we work on location across the state and remotely for clients in the Lower 48.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Video production & cinematography
- Documentary & short film
- Event & operational photography
- Photojournalism & editorial media
- Motion graphics & post-production
- Messaging, scripting & content development
- Custom news, publishing & app platforms
- Brand, campaign & outreach media

DIFFERENTIATORS

- SBA-certified Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business, built for set-aside and sole-source work.
- Alaska-based with cold-weather, remote, and field-production capability most Outside vendors cannot match.
- Owns its production and delivery technology end to end: in-house client portal, secure media delivery, and a full newsroom/publishing platform.
- Documented, repeatable processes on every service line for dependable government delivery.
- Focused on veteran, Native, and public-mission storytelling.

REPRESENTATIVE WORK
